You are a very important part of our school and our library. You are the secret to a library that meets the needs of all of our students and teachers. What can you do? You can share one morning or afternoon each week, come in and get to know our students and our books. You can read to the students, you can help them find their favorite book, you can work the circulation desk and you can see that books are back on the shelf for the next group of students. It is an overwhelming job for one person but a rewarding job for all who give of their time, talents and energy. U are a part of US and Please contact Cathy Wilsher or Sue King asap and sign up to be a JWE library volunteer! Give it a try. You have nothing to lose and everything to gain! :-)

You can also help us raise money for our library without spending a dime. Please be on the lookout for a booklet coming home with your child on Wednesday, October 6th. We would greatly appreciate it if you would take a 1/2 hour or so to fill in 10 names and addresses of friends and family. The addresses will be used only once for magazine orders but the library earns money regardless of magazine sales. We receive money for every booklet filled out. If you have more than one child, you may fill out 5 and 5 (for 2 children) or 3,3,3 (for 3 children)... That way each child will get a prize when they return their booklets that Wednesday or Thursday. In this tough economy, this is a way for the library to continue to buy new books for your children to check out and enjoy.

Be on the lookout
October 6th!

"Books are standing counselors and preachers, always at hand, and always disinterested; having this advantage over oral instructors, that they are ready to repeat their lesson as often as we please. ~Oswald Chambers~

MY BOOK!

I did it!

I did it!

Come and look

At what I've done!

I read a book!

When someone wrote
it

Long ago

For me to read,

How did he know

That this was the book

I'd take from the shelf

And lie on the floor

And read by myself?

I really read it!

Just like that!

Word by word,

From first to last!

I'm sleeping with

This book in bed,

This first FIRST book

I've ever read!

BBC

By now you know that the BBC is the Birthday Book Club! We have had the students already asking if we are having it again this year and of course, the answer is YES. The BBC is a celebration of books and the joy books bring to the hearts and faces of students in K-5. Students are asked to contribute $10. When they join they are given a few thank you gifts but more importantly, their name is placed on a bookplate inside a new book as the book's donor. Your child will also be invited to participate in an end of the year party with other BBC members. Watch for details coming soon. I want to thank you for being part of the JWE library by doing any or all of the activities listed in this newsletter. U are a part US and you are appreciated.
