

TrebleMakers is a ladies-only honor choir open to 7th and 8th grade girls by audition only. This group performs in concerts as well as in the community. They experience challenging treble music and work on skills unique to the girl's voices. TrebleMakers is a year-long activity.